Narrative & Statements

Narrative - Baxter, Scott - 1/25/2018 (Investigative)

On 01-24-18 at approximately 0946 AM, I received an email link to a NEA Report on a local business possibly engaging in activity not permitted under their current licensing.

The article headlined with a picture of what it described as a "topless woman dancing on a strip pole in front of live music" at the Office Sports Grill. The reporter had already contacted the owner, Keith Hendrix, and reported that he confirmed to them that it occurred the previous Saturday night. He explained to them that there was a birthday party and a band was playing and there was a girl dancing but her top was off only because someone had snapped the back of her top and pulled it off just prior to that photo being taken. The reporter was told that both parties were removed after the incident. The reporter had also contacted ABC for an interview about this incident, prompting them to initiate an investigation. (Article attached.)

On 01-25-18, Chief Elliott provided me a copy of a video clip that he had been given which depicted a different scenario than described above. The girl was dancing in panties, topless, with a pole and her top clearly was not just pulled off only for a matter of seconds. I later met with Assistant City Attorney Jessica Thomason who gave me another video clip she had been given of the incident where the same girl was dancing for two men who appeared to be the ones that the birthday party was for. At one point, one of the men actually picks up the dancer in somewhat of a hug and slaps her buttock. During this video, another female that appeared to be an employee (listed witness #1) was coordinating things with a microphone and speaker system and it appeared to be occurring in the open common area of the bar. Toward the end, she can be heard clearing the area of the pole so that the dancer can get to it to perform. She can also be heard exclaiming to any patrons that have not paid their cover charge, to get to the bar and pay.

Narrative &amp; Statements

Narrative - Baxter, Scott - 1/25/2018 (Investigative)

I met with ABC Agent Jesse King who told me that he and another Agent had an appointment to meet and discuss the incident with Dr Hendrix. They were provided the information and video's that we had been given. I contacted Agent King after they had an opportunity to meet with Dr Hendrix and he advised that Dr Hendrix said that he is the owner of the business & they had confirmed the incident and confirmed that the person coordinating the show was an employee. Dr Hendrix claimed to them that he was not present at the time of the incident and had been lied to. (ABC report attached.)

Live Entertainment was not disclosed on the application for the business as required. Topless female dancers are also not permitted at the location. Both are violations of Jonesboro City Code as well as State Law & ABC Rules.

City Attorney Carol Duncan was briefed and presented with the information that had been obtained and the matter will be forwarded to the Jonesboro City Council Public Safety Committee for a hearing and determination.

Reference Jonesboro Code of Ordinances Sec.6; specifically 6-5, 6-32, 6-38, & 6-47. Sec. 117-249.

I spoke to Dr Hendrix on 02-15-2018 at approx 1605 hrs. He confirmed that Witness #1 (Scrivner, Stella O.) was the manager on duty that night. I asked him if there were any other witnesses or employees present that night and he said that Witness #2 (Hawkins, Jake) and Witness #3 (Doss, Brittany) were employees that were present. He added that Witness #2 (Hawkins, Jake) was the one who kicked them out. He continued talking about the incident and how it has been blown up on social media and how it has impacted him after all that the business has given back to the community. He said that he knew there was 7-9 minutes of video out there and it should not have went that long but they were short a guy that night and they were slammed and things just got out of hand so fast. He talked about the business not having any problems before and will never have anything like this happen again. He said he has hired a consultant to come in and talk to them. He said it was steak night & there was a big crowd with three or four birthday parties going on. I asked to see his permits, which he did have posted on the wall behind the bar area, and I commented about the state license (under Susan Pollard) and the local permit (under Keith Hendrix) being in different names & he said that Susan Pollard was his 'other half' and one of them had to be in the owners name because they wouldn't let him put down a manager. He went on to say that they were there earlier that night and everything was fine and they went home prior to this incident happening. He said when he heard about it Monday, he called ABC and reported it and they had not heard anything about it yet. He said he told them to get ready because he thought it was coming. I served him with a "Notice of Hearing" (attached) that would be held in the Council Chambers at City Hall on March 1st at 5 PM and asked him about serving Susan Pollard as well. He said that he would see her later and would give it to her. I gave him a copy for her as well. I also gave him a copy of the city ordinances referenced above that I felt may possibly be brought up during the hearing but added that there could be others as well. I left at approx 1620 hrs.

DATE OF OFFENSE: 1/20/18	TIME:	OFFICER/ RANK/ AGENCY Jesse King ABC Enforcement

On January 24, 2018 Dr. Keith Kendrick telephoned me. He stated He owns the private club listed above and he wanted to report a possible violation(s) of his ABC priate club permit. He stated he had been made aware that during a birthday party that occurred on January 20, 2018 things had gotten out of hand and someone had brought in a female dancer. He stated that during the dance the dancer had ended up being topless.

Dr. Hendrix stated the permit is in his girlfriend's name but he owns the business. He further stated he was not in the club when this happened. Dr. Hendrix stated he first became aware of it when a reporter showed him cellphone video of the events that transpired during this particular birthday party. He noted that there was as many as four(4) birthday parties that night. I made an appointment to come to Jonesboro later in the week and discuss it with him.

The same morning I received a phone call from the Jonesboro Police Chief who advised me that the police department, and city attorney were getting calls from a local news media organization asking for comment about a situation that occurred at Office Grill.. He stated he had made copies of at least two different cell phone videos. He agreed to share those with me.

On January 24, 2018 Special Agent Shelby Clark and I went to this establishment and met with Dr. Hendrix. we examined the area in which the events of January 20th happened. There is a raised platform in the front of the club which is being used for live bands to perform. Dr. Hendrix stated he had been allowing live bands for quite a while and did not know that it was not permitted under his permit. The state is triangular; measuring approximately eight feet at its deepest and approximately fourteen(14) feet in width. It is approximately one(1) foot high.

According to the videos obtained by Agent Clark and me the following incident took place:

During one of the birthday celebrations two men are seated in chairs on the floor in front of the stage. A female in a black dress appears and starts dancing. During her performance she takes her dress off and is left clothed in panties and a bra. She does leg splits in front of them and at times turn her back, showing her buttocks to them. At one point one of the men spanks the dancer on the buttocks. After she finishes dancing both men hug her and one of them picks her up and spanks her repeatedly on the buttocks. Other parts of this video are of other men talking while taking a "selfie".

A second video I obtained shows the same entertainer. This time she is laying on the floor on her back and her breasts are exposed for the duration of the video which is only about four seconds. In both videos the dancer is a "small person"

Clearly shown in this video is a stripper pole. During our inspection we noted that the pole had been removed.

The Office Sports Grill does not have a permit for pole dancing or live music, ABC administrator says

JONESBORO, Ark. – A local sports bar with a private club permit may have violated the terms of their liquor license after a photo showing topless dancer in front of a live band on Saturday, Jan. 20, surfaced online. It may not be just one violation, either.

Keith Hendrix owns The Office Sports Grill. He confirmed the photo was taken on Saturday in his establishment during an interview with NEA Report on Tuesday. However, Hendrix claims the photo, which appears to capture a topless woman pole dancing, does not capture the full story.

“It was Saturday night in the club, here, we had a band here,” Hendrix said. “Somebody had a birthday party. They had a girl dancing for them and somebody snapped the back of her top and pulled it off.”

As Hendrix described the incident, the above photo was taken at the precise moment after someone pulled her top off but before both were removed from the club. He said as soon as it happened, the person who pulled her top off was removed. He said the woman dancing was also removed from the location.

Source: The Office Sports Grill Facebook page;

Dated 2012

Hendrix said it was the birthday party which got out of hand but he then shifted to blaming the situation on his competitors.

“And now it’s just the competitors and people who are jealous and assume,” Hendrix began by saying. “We had a band. They were up there, singing and playing. We always have a band.”

However, this marks a new problem for Hendrix: his private club permit does not include for or allow live bands, dancers, or anything of the such. ABC Administration Director Mary Robin Casteel confirmed this to NEA Report on Tuesday.

“Unless it was noted and they called and specifically asked if that could be added to the permit,” it would not have been allowed for live music to be performed at the grill, Casteel said.

“Arkansas Law requires that a private club must exist for some reason other than the consumption of alcoholic beverages. See below.

Not only does the entertainment requirement give specific examples for live bands and dancers, but the next line on the paper says, “if you are in doubt about whether to list an item, you are urged to include it.”

There was no mention of live music or dancing on the application.

"There just appears to be a description of the charitable partnerships of the business," said Casteel. "They don't list any of the things we would normally classify as entertainment."

We told Hendrix this immediately after his previous quote stating he "always" had a band performing.

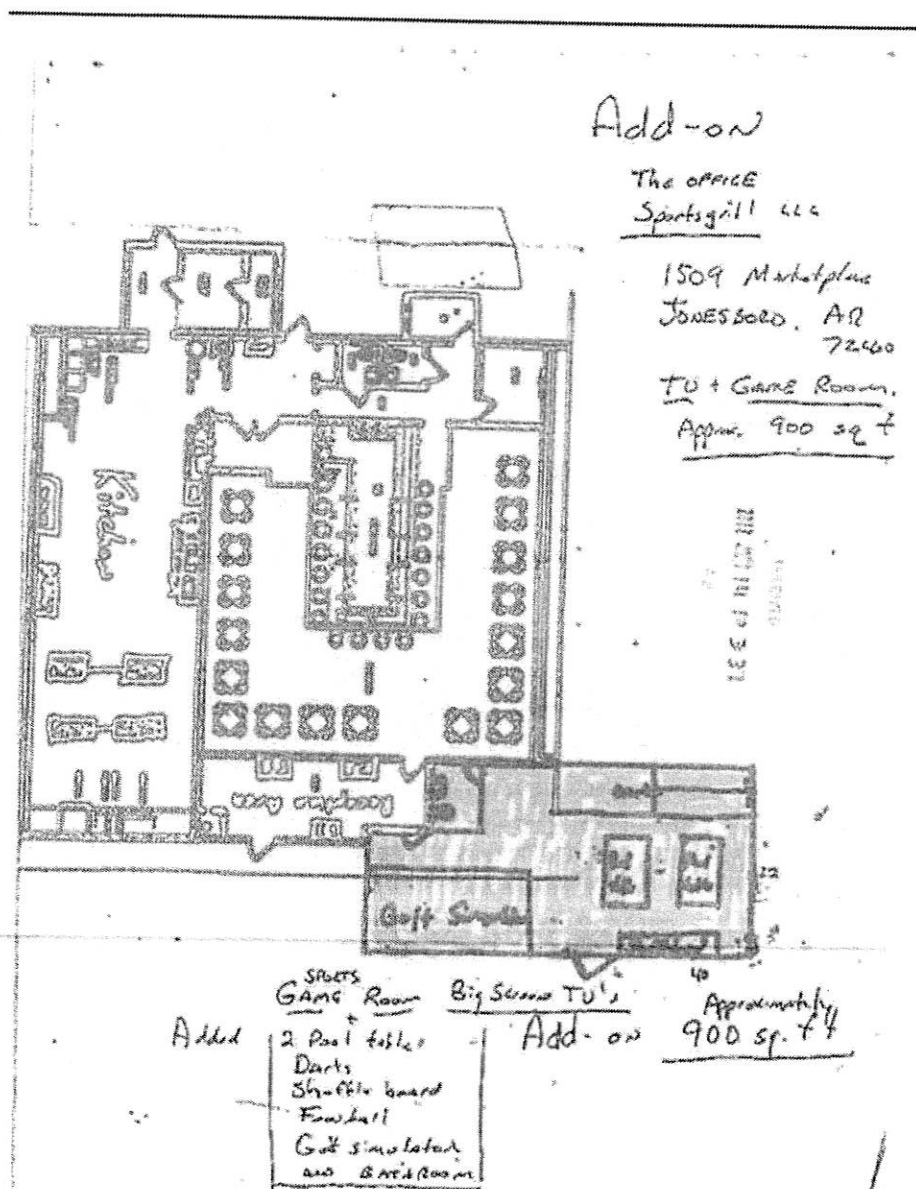

"I didn't know that," Hendrix said, his voice sounding panicked. "I thought... We do have... Every place in Jonesboro... I've never been questioned about it or a fees. I just get the brunt of everything."

Hendrix then went from saying his establishment, "always" had a band to saying it just recently began hosting live music.

"The band just started in the past two or three weeks," Hendrix said.

An expansion request filed in June, 2012, allowed The Office to add a game room. Still, Casteel said permit-holders must specifically request any additions or changes to the existence of the permit or it is a violation.

"It does appear they might have added some provisions for televisions and maybe some Foosball and video games but I still don't see anything for live music and especially not dancing," Casteel said.

Any material change in the business operations proposed in the original application or in the manner the business has historically operated per above, without prior approval of the Director, shall be grounds for the revocation of any such permit. Section 1.34, ABC Rules and Regulations

Another violation could be from having the stripper pole. Hendrix said it was part of the establishment. He described it as something used by some dance classes which perform aerobic exercises on the cylindrical object.

"We have a pole over beside our bar," Hendrix said. "We have had one for years."

This could conflict with the strict rules under which the Office received their permit since nothing in the design shows any sort of pole for dancing. In addition to not being specifically approved, Casteel said requirements for having a permit and a strip pole can be very complicated.

"We do have very specific rules for establishments that have to be approved for that type of dancing, strip poles and that," Casteel said. "This particular establishment does not have anything like that approved."

Another issue exists if it is found the topless pole dancing was more than accidental/incidental. If the business was found to have allowed it to go on, they could be in trouble with the City of Jonesboro.

Assistant City Attorney Jessica Thomason said for a sexually oriented business to operate within the City of Jonesboro, one has to get a conditional use permit – which they have not applied for, as of 5 PM on Tuesday. In addition, the business could not be within 2000 feet of a school, church, and daycare.

Douglas MacArthur Junior High School and the Visual & Performing Arts Magnet School are both about 1,200 feet to the southwest of their location (the magnet school is not marked on the map below).

As for who was responsible for the behavior, Thomason said the business couldn't blame the birthday partiers so easily.

"Under ABC rules, the establishment itself is responsible for the people who come in and out and making sure they follow the rules and regulations of ABC," Thomason said.

Hendrix asserts his business did everything it could during the debacle to manage the situation. He did say he was not at the club on Saturday night when it happened.

"We did everything in our power to stop it," Hendrix said. "It's just one of those deals that, when it happens, you have to stop it immediately."

It was a sentiment the ABC Administration Director agreed with.

"The proper protocol is for this to go to ABC Enforcement," Casteel said. "They would conduct an investigation and if they found what they see as violations, they would report that to ABC for adjudication, fines, actions against the permit, and that's when I would get involved. But obviously, based on what you're telling me, I will be getting in touch with ABC Enforcement."

Re: Alcohol hearing before Council committee

Mayor:

I feel very strongly that this city, and council, should not undertake our first exposure to this appeal process without several details I am not aware of being in place.

1 - It makes no sense to proceed before the ABC issues its findings. If nothing else, such findings, and even testimony from their agents, would be critical evidence for the committee.

2 - It should be conducted basically following the format of a trial, with the committee as the jury. This first of all means the City Attorney should be responsible for acting as prosecutor, and presenting the evidence calling for closure (or whatever punishment is called for). She would organize the evidence from the ABC to be presented.

3 - The committee chair would act solely as judge, to keep the peace and, if called for, rule on issues of procedure.

4 - A reporter (court reporter type) should take the testimony and maybe type a transcript afterwards, if asked for and paid for. Just a video recording might not be sufficient, but the City Attorney should rule on this.

5 - Unless it is organized and presented like this, we very well may find us just one more time being overruled by a court appeal, saying we did not offer the proper hearing.

So, I think you would be smart to postpone the hearing until after ABC action, and see that some of the above is accomplished. Let's get it right, or not do it at all until we get it right. There will be an attorney there representing the owner who will be glad to point out all the less than perfect things, and the news media will concentrate on that.

So, if you want to avoid doing all this, just convince the comm.. chairman that he should do it, and why, and let him be quoted.

Mayor, City Council, City Attorney and City Clerk.

I have read the Ordinance to Amend the Alcohol Ordinance of the city of Jonesboro and would like to add the specific requirements below. I think they will make the issuing and enforcing issues much better.

I would have signed this or put in my return address but feel uncomfortable based upon where I currently work.
