

1421 Angelus St

An aerial photograph of a suburban neighborhood. A red location pin is placed on a street, with the address '1421 Angelus St' written in white text next to it. The street is a two-lane road with a white center line. To the left of the street is a large green lawn with several trees. To the right is a residential lot with a house and more trees. In the background, there are more houses and a larger road. The overall scene is a typical suburban residential area.
