ORD-97:315 allows the Mayor to sell or exchange equipment without competitive bidding if the equipment has a value of $10,000 or less.

The previous administration loaned to the City of Waveland, Mississippi various surplus equipment that previously was to be included in the City's auction on October 29, 2005 because of the City of Waveland's immense loss from Hurricane Katrina.

The cost of transporting the equipment back to Jonesboro would require an expense much greater than the fair value of the equipment.

Therefore, I have sold the equipment for a total of $10 to the City of Waveland, Mississippi on this date and transferred titles to all such equipment to the City of Waveland, Mississippi. A list of the equipment is attached.
