Arkansas Law requires that a private club must exist for some reason other than the consumption of alcoholic beverages. On this sheet of paper, which is a part of your verified application, you are to describe, in complete detail, what entertainment (live bands, dancers, food service, etc.), social functions, or other recreational events will be available at the club for the members. If you are in doubt about whether to list an item, you are urged to include it.

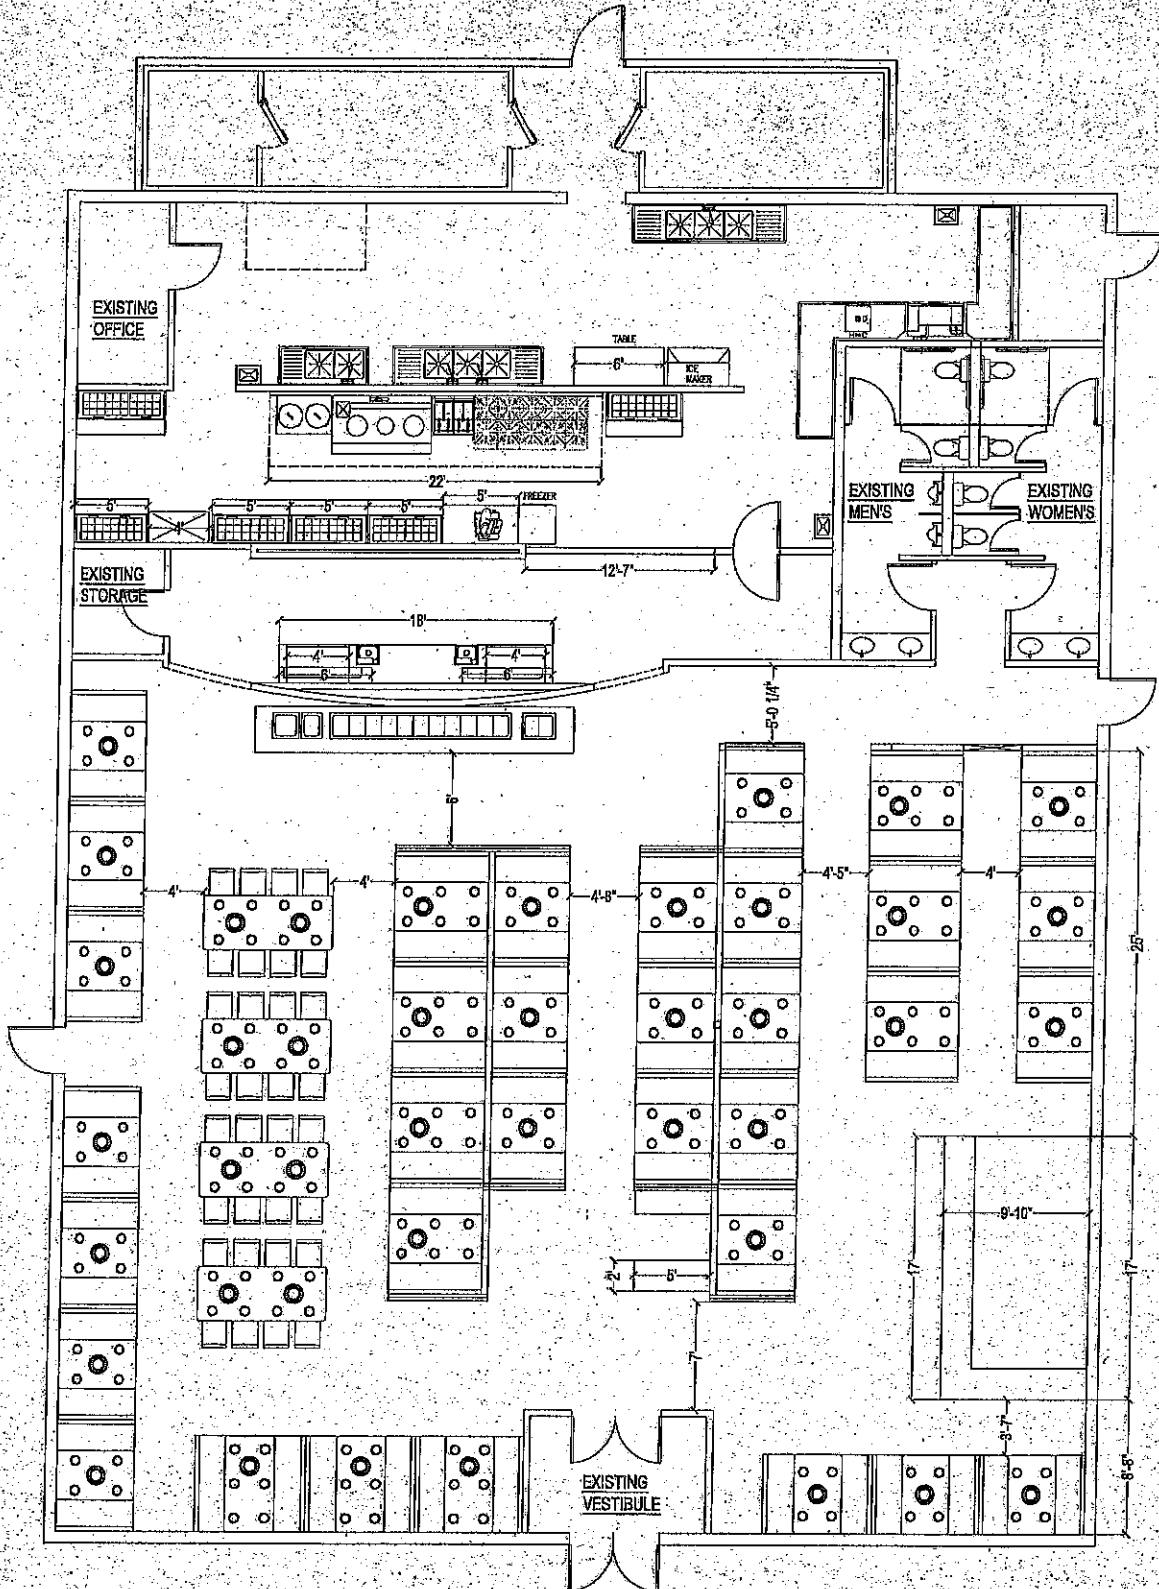

Under Section 1.34 of the ABC regulations, any permit issued by this agency is only valid for the uses described in the original application. Any material change in the club's operation or entertainment, other than originally listed in this application, without prior approval of the director, shall be grounds or revocation of your permit.

On your floor plan, which is a separate attachment, please mark the entrance to the private club, noting the location of the guest book, and mark any major features of the private club area, including where specific entertainment items will be located.

PLEASE PRINT OR TYPE YOUR RESPONSES BELOW. USE THE BACK OF FORM, OR ADDITIONAL SHEETS, IF NECESSARY.

KPot Jonesboro is a family oriented establishment whose purpose is to provide the residents of Jonesboro and surrounding counties with an authentic Korean dining experience. This is a one of a kind dining experience where customers and private members will be able to cook for themselves at the table.

Hot pot is a Asian cooking method, prepared with a simmering pot of soup stock at the dining table, containing a variety of East Asian foodstuffs and ingredients. While the hot pot is kept simmering, ingredients are placed into the pot and are cooked at the table, in a manner similar to fondue. Typical hot pot dishes include thinly sliced meat, leaf vegetables, mushrooms, wontons, egg dumplings, tofu and seafood. The cooked food is usually eaten with a dipping sauce.

Korean Barbecue (gogigui, "Meal Roast") refers to the popular method in Korean cuisine of grilling meat, typically beef, pork or chicken, that you prepare yourself at your simple. Grill your meat and vegetable to perfection, spread out some lettuce leaves or wrap your cooked meat in the lettuce toss on some sliced pepper and kimchi and a dash of "kepot special sauce" fold it over add some rice. Haven in the lips.

There are three basic booze options when it comes to drinking with your KBBO: Soju (basic rice wine), Takju (a cloudy rice wine) and Korean Light Beer.

BY-LAWS
OF KPOT JONESBORO, INC.

ARTICLE I OFFICES

The principal office of the corporation shall be located at 2312 E. Parker Road, Jonesboro, Craighead County, Arkansas. The corporation may have such other offices, either within or without the State of Arkansas, as the Board of Directors may determine from time to time.

ARTICLE II
MEMBERS

Section 1. Classes of Members. The members of the corporation shall be of one class and shall be allowed one vote each.

Section 2. Voting Rights. Each member in good standing shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote of the members.

Section 3. Termination of Membership. The Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of all of the members of the Board, may suspend or expel a member for cause after an appropriate hearing, and, by a majority vote of those present at any regularly constituted meeting, may terminate the membership of any member who becomes ineligible for membership, or suspend or expel any member who shall be in default in the payment of dues for the period fixed hereinafter.

Section 4. Resignation. Any member may resign by filing a written resignation with the Secretary, but such resignation shall not relieve the member so resigning of the obligation to pay any dues, assessments, or other charges theretofore accrued and unpaid.

Section 5. Reinstatement. On written request signed by a former member and filed with the Secretary, the Board of Directors, by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members of the Board, may reinstate such former member to membership of such terms as the Board of Directors may deem appropriate.

Section 6. Transfer of Membership. Membership in this corporation is not transferable or assignable.

ARTICLE III
MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

Section 1. Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of the members may be held at the principal office of the corporation each year, if called, for the purpose of electing directors and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. If the day fixed for the annual meeting is a legal holiday in the State of Arkansas, such meeting shall be held on the day designated herein for any annual meeting, or at any adjournment thereof, the Board of Directors shall cause the election to be held at a special meeting of the members as soon thereafter as is convenient.

Section 2. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the members may be called by the President, the unanimous vote of the Board of Directors, or not less than 50% of the members having voting rights, at a place designated by the Board of Directors. If no designation is made, the place of meeting shall be the principal office of the corporation in the State of Arkansas.

Section 3. Notice of Meetings. Written or printed notice stating the place, day, and hour of any meeting of members shall be posted at the main entrance to the corporate office and meeting place in the conspicuous place, not less than five (5) nor more than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, by or at the direction of the President, or the Secretary, or the officers or persons calling the meeting. In case of a special meeting or when required by statute or by these By-laws, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be stated in the notice. If mailed, the notice of a meeting shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail, addressed to the member at his address as it appears on the records of the corporation with postage thereon prepaid.

Section 4. Informal Action by Members. Any action required by law to be taken at a meeting of the members, or any action that may be taken at a meeting of members, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action to be taken, is signed by all the members entitled to vote with the respect to the subject matter thereof.

Section 5. Quorum. A quorum shall consist of at least fifty (50) per cent of the members eligible to cast votes at any regular or special meeting of the corporation. If a quorum is not present at any meeting of the membership, a majority of the members present may adjourn the meeting.

Section 6. Proxies. All voting by the club membership or any committee or sub-committee of the club shall be by the individual member in person or by mailed ballot. No proxy vote shall be allowed.

Section 7. Voting by Mail. Where directors or officers are to be elected by members of any class or classes of members, such election may be conducted by mail in such manner as the Board of Directors shall determine.

ARTICLE IV BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. General Powers. The affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors.

Section 2. Number, Tenure, and Qualifications. There shall be three. Directors shall be elected at the annual meeting of members, and the term of office of each director shall be until the election and qualification of his successor.

Section 3. Regular Meetings. A regular meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held without any other notice than this By-law immediately after, and at the same place, as the annual meeting of members. The Board of Directors may provide by resolution, the time and place for holding additional regular meetings without other notice than such resolution. Additional regular meetings shall be held at the principal office of the corporation in the absence of any designation in the resolution.

Section 4. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by or at the request of the President or any director, and shall be held at the principal office of the corporation or at such other place as the directors may determine.

Section 5. Notice. Notice of any special meeting of the Board of Directors shall be given at least two days previously thereto by written notice delivered personally or sent by mail or telegram to each director at his address as shown by the records of the corporation. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail in a sealed envelope so addressed, with postage thereon prepaid. If notice is given by telegram, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when it is delivered to the telegraph company. Any director may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance of a director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. The business to be transacted at the meeting need not be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting, unless specifically required by law or by these By-laws.

Section 6. Quorum. A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board; but if less than a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice.

Section 7. Board Decision. The act of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of Directors, unless the act of a greater number is required by law or by these By-laws.

Section 8. Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors and any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the shall be filled by the Board of Directors. A director appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve for the unexpired term of his predecessor in office.

Section 9. Compensation. Directors as such shall not receive any stated salaries for their services, but by resolution of the Board of Directors a fixed sum and expenses of attendance, if any, may be allowed for attendance at any regular or special meeting of the Board. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any director from serving the corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefrom.

Section 10. Indemnification. The corporation shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless any director who is made a party defendant or threatened to be a party defendant to any action, suit, or proceeding of any type by reason of their service as a director of the corporation. Such indemnification shall include expenses, including attorney fees, judgment, fines, or any amount paid in settlement. Directors are charged with acting in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be and not opposed to the best interests of the corporation.

ARTICLE V OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers. The officers of the corporation shall be a President and Secretary-Treasurer and such other officers as may be elected by the Board in accordance with the provisions of this article. The Board of Directors may elect, appoint or employ such other officers, including one or more assistant treasurers, as it may deem desirable, such officers to have the authority and perform the duties prescribed, from time to time, by the Board of Directors. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person.

Section 2. Election and Term of Office. The office of the corporation shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors and a regular meeting of the Board of Directors. If the election of officers is not held at such meeting, such election shall be held as soon thereafter as convenient. New offices may be created and filled at any meeting of the Board of Directors. Each officer shall hold office until his successor has been duly elected and qualified.

Section 3. Removal. Any officer elected or appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed by the Board of Directors whenever in its judgment the best interest of the corporation would be served thereby, but such removal shall be without prejudice to any contract rights, if any, of the officer so removed.

Section 4. Vacancies. A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal disqualification, or otherwise, may be filled by the Board of Directors for the unexpired portion of the term.

Section 5. Powers and Duties. The several officers shall have powers and shall perform such duties as may from time to time be specified in resolutions or other directives of the Board of Directors. In the absence of such specifications, each officer shall have the power and authority and shall perform and discharge the duties of the office of the same title serving in non-profit corporations having the same or similar purposes or objectives to this corporation.

ARTICLE VI COMMITTEES

Section 1. Committees of Directors. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by the majority of the Directors in office, may designate one or more committees, each of which shall consist of two or more directors which committees, to the extent provided in such resolution shall have and exercise the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the corporation, by the designation of such committees and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors, or any individual directors, of any responsibility imposed on it or him by law.

Section 2. Other Committees. Other committees not having and exercising the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the corporation may be designated by a resolution adopted by the majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present. Except as otherwise provided in such resolution, members of each such committee shall appoint the members thereof. Any member thereof may be removed by the person or persons authorized to appoint such member whenever in their judgment the best interest of the corporation shall be served by such removal.

ARTICLE VII CONTRACTS, CHECKS, DEPOSITS AND FUNDS

Section 1. Contracts. The Board of Directors may authorize any officer or officers, agent or agents of the corporation, in addition to the officers so authorized by these By-laws, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the corporation, and such authority may be general or may be confined to specific instances.

Section 2. Checks, Drafts, or Orders. All checks, drafts, or orders for the payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the corporation, shall be signed by such officer or officers, agent or agents, of the corporation, and in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors, such instruments shall be signed by the treasurer or an assistant treasurer and countersigned by the President or Vice-President of the corporation.

Section 3. Deposits. All funds of the corporation shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the corporation in such banks, trust companies, or other depositories as the Board of Directors may select.
