Councilman Moore asked about the details of the system, if a button was going to be put in all of the offices. Police Chief Rick Elliott noted this is in conjunction with the E-911 Department. Rave is the system the school districts have adopted. The company would like to install the system in City Hall at no cost. City Hall will be the first municipality to have the system, so it will be a pilot program for the company. The system will give another layer of security to the people in the City Hall. A phone app is included, so someone doesn't have to be at their desk to start the system. Police Chief Elliott stated this is a great program and a lot of people are going to it.
