
Sec. 112-10. Floodplain development permit required.

A permit is required for all structural development, placement of manufactured structures, clearing, grading, mining, drilling, dredging, placement of fill, excavating, watercourse alteration, drainage improvements, roadway or bridge construction, individual water or sewer installation or any other development in a special flood hazard area to ensure conformance with the provision of this section of code.

(Ord. No. 08:099, § 2(2.5), 12-18-2008)