5. Other Business

Mr. Paul Pittman discussed a proposed ordinance regarding public solicitation on the intersections in town. It was noted the ordinance mirrored one from Fayetteville. Further discussion was held concerning the ordinance. Mr. Ledbetter expressed concern over changing the current ordinance. Police Chief Michael Yates stated the City should either prohibit the solicitations entirely or amend the current ordinance because the current ordinance has safety concerns. Mayor Formon stated he supports the ordinance. It was questioned whether the ordinance can limit the organizations to being only 501c3. It was asked to get an opinion from the City Attorney and bring it back at the next meeting.

Discussion was also held regarding recent problems at the 870 event center. It was noted the event center is in violation of their conditional use license. Chief Yates stated they are waiting on forensic work.

Chief Yates also discussed a disorderly house ordinance and nuisance abatement legislation that is currently at the City Attorney's office. It was asked for Chief Yates to keep the committee informed of the ordinances.
