Councilmember David McClain said so I am clear, we are repealing one and creating a new one. City Attorney Carol Duncan said yes. It makes a few changes to the procedure and policy. It changes a few of the requirements to have the Special Events Permit. My office worked on it closely with the Police Department. I can't specifically tell you every change, but it is not major changes. It has to do with who gets a permit and the permitting process, who they go through to do that. And, it may change some of the fees and if it did, I think it eliminated them more so than raising any fee. Councilmember McClain said ok.
