City Planner Otis Spriggs explained this ordinance was brought to the committee as a discussion item and the request was to bring it back as an ordinance. He added this ordinance will update the Code of Ordinances where it pertains to site plans. He further explained if a site plan is denied to the applicant then it can be appealed to the City Council, but if a site plan is approved by the Planning Commission then it will have to be appealed in the court system which is consistent with State Code.

Mr. Spriggs stated City Attorney Phillip Crego has reviewed this ordinance and has suggested the reference to quasi-judicial be removed from the ordinance for clarity reasons.

Councilman Dover asked if this deals with just site plans and not rezonings. Mr. Spriggs answered yes.
