

IN HONOR OF ARKANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY'S INAUGURAL NATIONALLY TELEVISED FOOTBALL GAME

WHEREAS: The City of Jonesboro and Arkansas State University have a long and rich history of working together to promote events and activities that are beneficial to both the institution and the community; and

WHEREAS: Arkansas State University athletics has enjoyed many accolades and accomplishments throughout its 100 year history; and

WHEREAS: Their most recent honor is having been chosen by ESPN to have their football game against Middle Tennessee on Tuesday, November 2nd nationally televised; and

WHEREAS: This game, to be played right here in Jonesboro, is ASU's first-ever nationally televised football game; and

WHEREAS: This game will also be a key conference matchup between these two rivals and a large crowd would not only give a competitive advantage to our Red Wolves but would also work to make a good impression on the City of Jonesboro throughout the nation; and

NOW THEREFORE, I Harold Perrin, by the authority duly vested in me by the citizens of Jonesboro and the State of Arkansas, do hereby recognize and congratulate the

ARKANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY RED WOLVES

On their first-ever nationally televised football game and encourage both corporate and private citizens of our community to make every effort to attend the game and support our University.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the City of Jonesboro this 19th day of October in the year of our Lord 2010.

Harold Perrin, Mayor
