JETS Director Joel Gardner asked the committee for guidance as to how to handle the numerous advertising contracts for JETS. He noted City Attorney Phillip Crego has reviewed and approved the contracts as to form. He also added the contracts will all be in a standard format. Councilman Frierson motioned, seconded by Councilman McCall, to allow for contracts that are made with a standard contract and income is going in to the City that the contract does not need to not be brought to the Public Services Committee for approval. All voted aye. Councilman Hargis noted he would like to still see each contract accounted for in income reports.

Enactment No: R-EN-030-2007

4. Pending Items

5. Other Business

COM-07:008 Consideration for listing in the National Register of Historic Places

Sponsors: Parks & Recreation
