Market Area Comments: The subject is located in the city limits of Jonesboro, AR. It is located just off of Welch St., and in the central areas of Jonesboro, AR. Welch St. is a 2 lane residential roadway. All roadways appear suitable for the type and extent of traffic. The adjoining property uses are mostly residential with some nearby commercial uses as well. Growth in the subject's immediate market area is stable, but not increasingly dramatically. It is found that multi-family zoned residential sites are in demand and have been stable to increasing over the past few years. Property values in this immediate area have been stable as well. This can be attributed to population increases, solid economic situations as well as the lack of unimproved sites available in this market. This trend has occurred over the past few years. It appears the marketability of the area will remain good even through some potential tougher times over the next few years. The Jonesboro market as a whole provides job opportunities that other areas of northeast Arkansas do not based on the industry, agriculture, medical and major university that is within the metro area. Overall, the market is stable and determined to be a market area that is desirable.

Site Comments: The subject is located along Welch St. The subject is a single lot. The site size was estimated using county records and GIS mapping system that is provided via county services. The site size is estimated to be 2,614 +/- sf. The site is relatively level in topography and mostly rectangular in shape. It appears the site has access to public utilities. The roadway providing access is paved and city maintained. It is recommended that a survey be conducted to confirm site size. Based on the opinion of value reflecting the price per square foot for a unit of comparison, deviation from this estimated site size could cause appraisal results to be impacted. The subject site is much smaller than what is customary within the market. Due to the size, the determined highest and best use could be impacted. It's unknown if a multi-family facility could fit on the subject site without a variance. A survey is recommended to ensure site size/dimensions. Confirmation from the city is also recommended.

Summary of Sales Comparison Approach All comps selected are located within the subject's immediate market area and if placed on the market at the same time I believe would compete. All comps are level, or gently sloping, in topography as well as having similar access from city maintained roadways. Comps 1 & 2 are covered with heavy forage. Due to the hbu being for residential development, the clearing of the forage was taken into consideration. Each comp also has all public utility access as well as being zoned for multi-family residential use (2-4 units). As can be seen, the marketability and/or motivation of each purchase was similar, residential development. After analysis, all comps were determined to help in supporting an opinion of value for the subject. The range of values is $5,000 to $10,500. The average is $7,833 and mid-range of value $7,750. Based on all comps being considered, the appraiser's opinion of value trends towards both measures of central tendency. After analysis and careful consideration, my opinion of value for the subject is $8,000. See addenda for more comments.

Scope of Work:

This report has been prepared for the referenced client, City of Jonesboro Arkansas Land Bank. The report has been made restricted to the use of the referenced client and their use only. No other users have been identified by the appraiser. The report has been performed to assist the client with a determination of market value for internal decision making. No other use has been identified by the appraiser. If this report is placed in the hands of anyone other than the client, the client shall make such third party aware of all the assumptions and limiting conditions of the assignment. The scope of this appraisal consisted of an observation of the subject site from the public street. Pictures of the of the site were taken and can be found in this report. No improvements were noted to exist on the subject site as of the time of inspection which is the effective date of the appraisal. In turn, the cost approach was not deemed applicable based on no improvements existing on the site. Also, the land is not determined to be income producing at this time so the Income Approach was deemed applicable. The MLS, local public records, as well as local comp services were researched for comparable sales in the neighborhood/subdivision. Those used were deemed the best available. The comparable sales were compared to the subject and adjustments in value were made as deemed appropriate. The approaches to value used in this report were reconciled and an opinion of value was rendered based on the data available. This report is an appraisal and not an environmental, structural, termite, or building inspection. If the user or client desires such type of reports, they should be ordered from a licensed home inspector or an environmental expert. This appraisal report does not guarantee that the property is free of defects. The appraiser is not a home inspector, termite inspector, or environmental inspector.

Market Value Definition:

Market value is the major focus of most real property appraisal assignments. Both economic and legal definitions of market value have been developed and refined. The definition of "market value" used in this report is:

A type of value, stated as an opinion, that presumes the transfer of a property (i.e., a right of ownership or a bundle of such rights), as of a certain date, under specific conditions set forth in the definition of the term identified by the appraiser as applicable in an appraisal.

Comment: Forming an opinion of market value is the purpose of many real property appraisal assignments, particularly when the client's intended use includes more than one intended user. The conditions included in market value definitions establish market perspectives for development of the opinion. These conditions may vary from definition to definition but generally fall into three categories:

1. the relationship, knowledge, and motivation of the parties (i.e., seller and buyer);
2. the terms of sale (e.g., cash, cash equivalent, or other terms); and
3. the conditions of sale (e.g., exposure in a competitive market for a reasonable time prior to sale).

The Appraisal Foundation, USPAP 2020-2023 Edition

Hypothetical Conditions/Extraordinary Assumptions:

A hypothetical condition is defined as:

. . . that which is contrary to what exists but is supposed for the purpose of analysis . . . Hypothetical conditions assume conditions contrary to known facts about physical, legal, or economic characteristics of the subject property; or about conditions external to the property, such as market conditions, or trends, or about integrity of the data used in the analysis.

The Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice, (USPAP) 2020-2023 edition

- No hypothetical conditions were utilized.

An extraordinary assumption is defined as:

...an assumption, directly related to a specific assignment, which, if found to be false, could alter the appraiser's opinions or conclusions. . . Extraordinary assumptions presume as fact otherwise uncertain information about physical, legal, or economic characteristics of the subject property or about conditions external to the property, such as market conditions or trends, or the integrity of data used in the analysis.

The Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice, (USPAP) 2020-2023 edition

- Based on an extraordinary assumption that the subject has marketable title. Deviation could affect subject's market value.

Digital Signature:

This appraisal report contains digital signatures that meet the requirements of Statement on Appraisal Standards No.8 (SMT-8). The software programs used to transfer the report electronically provide digital signature security features for the appraiser signing the report. The appraiser that has signed (affixed an electronic signature) to this report has ensured that the electronic signature(s) is protected and the appraiser has maintained control of the signature. Per SMT-8 of the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice, electronically affixing a signature to a report carries the same level of authenticity and responsibility as an original ink signature on a paper copy report.

Sales Concessions:

No sales concessions were conducted due to them being a traditional occurrence in this market. Not only are they a normal occurrence, but the lack of disclosures of sales concessions is poor. It is not a requirement in the state of Arkansas to disclose sales concessions and disclosing these sales concessions could result in violations of Arkansas law.

Comps Over One Mile:

Comparable sales over one mile away were used because they are the best available in this area. Expanding the search to a radius greater than one mile developed sales that are still within the same market. These sales are the best comparables to the subject property and are therefore used in this report.

Comps Over Six Months:

A thorough search for comparable sales was made in this market area. Comparables that sold within six months of the date of appraisal were significantly different in location, size, age, conditions and other value influencing items. In the appraisers judgment, the comparables selected are a better indication of value than most recent sales.

Highest & Best Use Analysis:

Highest and Best Use, as used in this appraisal report, is defined as, "The reasonably probable and legal use of vacant land or an improved property, which is physically possible, appropriately supported, financially feasible, and that results in the highest value." (From The Appraisal of Real Estate 13th Edition, prepared by The American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers.) A basic economic principle applicable in the estimation of highest and best use is the principle of conformity. Again, quoting from the 13th Edition of The Appraisal of Real Estate, "Market forces create market value, so the analysis of market forces that have a bearing on the determination of highest and best use is crucial to the valuation process. When the purpose of an appraisal is to develop an opinion of market value, highest and best use analysis identifies the most profitable and competitive use to which the property can be put."

When determining the highest and best use of an unimproved site, it is necessary to determine the highest and best use of the site as if vacant and ready to be put to its highest and best use. This use has been determined with regard to what uses are physically possible, legally permissible, financially feasible, and maximally productive. In estimating (determining) the highest and best use, consideration is given to surrounding improvements, deed restrictions, the site's physical and legal constraints, location and trends in the neighborhood. Implied in these definitions is that the determination of highest and best use considers the contribution of a specific use to the community and community development goals as well as the benefits of that use to individual property owners.

An additional implication is that the determination of highest and best use results from the appraiser's judgment and analytical skill - that is, that the use determined from analysis represents an opinion, not a fact to be found. In appraisal practice, the concept of highest and best use represents the premise upon which value is based. (From The Appraisal of Real Estate, 13th Edition, published by the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers, 2008). The highest and best use of the subject site as vacant will be analyzed based on the criteria for determining highest and best use.

Highest and Best Use is defined as "that reasonable and probable use that will support the highest present value, as defined, as of the effective date of the appraisal. Alternatively, that use, from among reasonable, probable and legal alternative uses, found to be physically possible, appropriately supported, financially feasible and which results in the highest land value."

The following tests must be passed in determining the highest and best use:

- The use must be within the realm of probability; that is, it must be likely, not speculative or conjectural.
- The use must be legal.
- A demand must exist for such use.
- The use must be profitable.
- The use must be such as to return to the land, as well as the property on the whole, the highest net return.

Four stages are included in the analysis of highest and best use:

Physically Possible: determine the physically possible uses for the subject site.

Legally Permissible: determine which uses are legally permitted for the subject site.

Financially Feasible: determine which possible and permissible uses will produce a net return to the subject site.

Maximally productive: determine which use, among the feasible uses, is the most profitable use of the subject site.

The highest and best use of the land as if vacant and available for use may be different from the highest and best use of improved property. This is true when the improvements do not constitute an appropriate use. The existing use will continue unless and until land value in its highest and best use exceeds the sum value of the entire property in its existing use and the cost to remove the improvements.

Since the appraisal of the subject property is based on a premise of use, the highest and best use analysis determines just what this premise of use should be. A highest and best use analysis consists of considering the highest and best use of a property under two assumptions:

- (1) with a vacant and available site and
- (2) with the property as improved.

These two assumptions on highest and best use are correlated into one final estimate of highest and best use.

As Vacant and Available

The first major aspect of the highest and best use analysis is considering the property as if it were vacant and available for development. This assumption is made to determine whether the land alone is worth more than the existing property, as is. In other words, this is the beginning benchmark to compare with the highest and best use of the property as is, to determine whether the site is presently under-utilized.

Possible Use - The physical aspects of the land impose the first constraints on any possible use of the property. The appraised tract is a relatively rectangular shaped tract consisting of 2,614 +/- square feet. The site is level to slightly sloping in topography and above street grade. It has good access to public roadways. Based on the physical aspects of the land parcel, a variety of land uses are possible.

Permissible Use - Based on research conducted, the subject is currently zoned R-2, Multi-Family Residential. This zoning classification allows for all residential improvements. Specifically, this zoning allows for multi-family residential improvements. There is determined to be a restriction on the number of units per acre of land. There are no known easements that would negatively affect the development of the tract. In turn, residential uses would be possible and permissible.

Feasible Uses - The desirability for vacant land in the subject's immediate area is average to good based on the demand for vacant sites and low supply available. Development in the subject's immediate neighborhood consists of mostly residential improvements. It is my opinion that a residential use provides a positive net return to the land and, therefore, is considered feasible.

Most Profitable Use - In the final analysis, a determination must be made as to which feasible use is the highest and best use of the parcel as if vacant. Based on the current demand for vacant sites in the subject's immediate market area, if the site were vacant and available, it is in the appraiser's opinion that the highest and best use would be for multi-family residential development.

Conclusion of Highest and Best Use

Based on the preceding analysis of the site, as vacant and available for development, it is the appraiser's opinion that the highest and best use for the subject property is for multi-family residential development.

STATEMENT OF ASSUMPTIONS & LIMITING CONDITIONS

- The appraiser will not be responsible for matters of a legal nature that affect either the property being appraised or the title to it. The appraiser assumes that the title is good and marketable and, therefore, will not render any opinions about the title. The property is appraised on the basis of it being under responsible ownership.
- The appraiser may have provided a plat and/or parcel map in the appraisal report to assist the reader in visualizing the lot size, shape, and/or orientation. The appraiser has not made a survey of the subject property.
- If so indicated, the appraiser has examined the available flood maps that are provided by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (or other data sources) and has noted in the appraisal report whether the subject site is located in an identified Special Flood Hazard Area. Because the appraiser is not a surveyor, he or she makes no guarantees, express or implied, regarding this determination.
- The appraiser will not give testimony or appear in court because he or she made an appraisal of the property in question, unless specific arrangements to do so have been made beforehand.
- The appraiser has noted in the appraisal report any adverse conditions (including, but not limited to, the presence of hazardous wastes, toxic substances, etc.) observed during the inspection of the subject property, or that he or she became aware of during the normal research involved in performing the appraisal. Unless otherwise stated in the appraisal report, the appraiser has no knowledge of any hidden or unapparent conditions of the property, or adverse environmental conditions (including, but not limited to, the presence of hazardous wastes, toxic substances, etc.) that would make the property more or less valuable, and has assumed that there are no such conditions and makes no guarantees or warranties, express or implied, regarding the condition of the property. The appraiser will not be responsible for any such conditions that do exist or for any engineering or testing that might be required to discover whether such conditions exist. Because the appraiser is not an expert in the field of environmental hazards, the appraisal report must not be considered as an environmental assessment of the property.
- The appraiser obtained the information, estimates, and opinions that were expressed in the appraisal report from sources that he or she considers to be reliable and believes them to be true and correct. The appraiser does not assume responsibility for the accuracy of such items that were furnished by other parties.
- The appraiser will not disclose the contents of the appraisal report except as provided for in the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice, and any applicable federal, state or local laws.
- An appraiser's client is the party (or parties) who engage an appraiser in a specific assignment. Any other party acquiring this report from the client does not become a party to the appraiser-client relationship. Any persons receiving this appraisal report because of disclosure requirements applicable to the appraiser's client do not become intended users of this report unless specifically identified by the client at the time of the assignment.
- The appraiser's written consent and approval must be obtained before this appraisal report can be conveyed by anyone to the public, through advertising, public relations, news, sales, or by means of any other media, or by its inclusion in a private or public database. Possession of this report or any copy thereof does not carry with it the right of publication.
- Forecasts of effective demand for the highest and best use or the best fitting and most appropriate use were based on the best available data concerning the market and are subject to conditions of economic uncertainty about the future.

The Scope of Work is the type and extent of research and analyses performed in an appraisal assignment that is required to produce credible assignment results, given the nature of the appraisal problem, the specific requirements of the intended user(s) and the intended use of the appraisal report. Reliance upon this report, regardless of how acquired, by any party or for any use, other than those specified in this report by the Appraiser, is prohibited. The Opinion of Value that is the conclusion of this report is credible only within the context of the Scope of Work, Effective Date, the Date of Report, the Intended User(s), the Intended Use, the stated Assumptions and Limiting Conditions, any Hypothetical Conditions and/or Extraordinary Assumptions, and the Type of Value, as defined herein. The appraiser, appraisal firm, and related parties assume no obligation, liability, or accountability, and will not be responsible for any unauthorized use of this report or its conclusions.
