Ninth, the number of directors under this authority will be twelve (12) with the maximum number of directors never to be more than fifteen. Selection of directors will be made by governing authority for the counties, municipalities, and towns. All towns under 5,000 population will be considered in county population for purposes of selection of directors. Municipalities with population of 5,000 or more will select their directors. The directors will be divided between the counties, municipalities, and towns according to population based upon the U.S. Census figures from 1980. Adjustment to number of directors allocated to each governing body will be changed within one year of each official U.S. Census. The directors will follow all other regulations governing conduct of the authority as contain in Act 699 of 1979. The term of each director will be three (3) years with no more than four directors serving consecutive terms. This initial term will be determined by lot.

Tenth, the addition of any new counties, municipalities, or towns must adhere to all provisions of this ordinance and Act 699 of 1979. The additional three (3) board member slots will be reserved for these potential governing bodies. The board will have the authority to set conditions for membership based upon facts and circumstances at that date.

Eleventh, to insure accountability the directors will submit on an annual basis to the governing authorities:

A. - An audited financial statement in accordance with the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants' accepted standards.

B. A written report detailing current year goals and implementation of last years goals.

C. A formal budget for current year operation and variance from last years budget.

The above mentioned reports must be submitted for review to all governing authorities.

Twelfth, in an effort to provide initial operating funds, the governing authorities will deposit $25,000.00 in Waste Disposal Authority's account. The contribution will be determined by population under the same rules as detailed in item nine.

Thirteenth, the names of the initial members and the signature of the governing officer of these members and the attestation of the respective clerks of each member are set forth hereinbelow:
