

INSPECTION REPORT

TO THE MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL:

The undersigned have made an official inspection of the property known as the corner of Craighead and Wood Streets in the City of Jonesboro, Arkansas, which is apparently owned by Hazel Croft, Lawton Street, Lawton, Oklahoma.

This property is an old abandoned filling station which has been used as a residence, which is found to be a fire hazard, a safety hazard and a health hazard. The structure is not habitable. It is not subject to effective repair.

On the basis of these facts, therefore, we recommend to the City Council that such structure be condemned in the interest of the public health and safety.

Dated this 18th day of April, 1966.
