CITY OF JONESBORO

November 25, 2014

To the members of the Jonesboro City Council
And the Citizens of Jonesboro, Arkansas

I am proud to enclose my recommended budget for the Jonesboro's 2015 fiscal year. This document is the latest in our best efforts to present a comprehensive forecast of revenues and expenses for 2015. As in previous years, it is the culmination of hours and hours of hard work and tedious review by members of our administration, department heads, and members of our staff.

Overall, I am happy to report that Jonesboro continues to be blessed with a strengthening economy. We had a good year of local sales tax collections, and regional consumers once again showed their confidence in the local economy with steady spending. As in previous years since taking office, it remains increasingly difficult to predict with any degree of confidence or certainty exactly how consistent those revenue streams will continue to be, particularly as it concerns large project sales tax rebates and the length of time given to file them. We continued to have several months where we absorbed the brunt of some pretty large rebates, and those will continue well into 2015. Because we have no way of predicting when they will hit and how much they will be, we are forced to continue budgeting fairly conservatively when it comes to our revenue streams.

Throughout 2014, our department heads and staff have continued our past practices of working diligently to manage expenses. We strive year after year to build on previous successes in these areas, and it's something we work very hard at every day. Their efforts of good planning and prudent management will once again yield the desired results, with us projecting yet another year-end surplus for 2014.

As with the previous four years, I am pleased to present you a balanced operational budget. As with 2014, while the O&M budget is projected to operate within the fiscal years' income projections, we have elected to utilize our reserves in capital improvements and other special revenue funds to finance many important infrastructure projects in the city. Both of these exercises were prudent and necessary in the wake of our letting the temporary public safety sales tax expire earlier this year; which will result in $7.5 million dollars less in revenue for fiscal for 2015. This placed additional importance on our practice of conservative projections of revenues and tightly controlled management of expenses, and is allowing us the opportunity to think more strategically long-term in regards to major infrastructure projects.

There are only two new full-time positions created within this 2015 budget, and I feel that both are critical to the growing demands of managing the city's business responsibly and protecting the health and welfare of our citizens. One position is a Director of Communications and Policy, and the other is a Sex Offender Registration Specialist, a civilian position within our police department.

Despite continuing increases in the cost of living, we are pleased that we have been able to maintain our health coverage for employees and their families. As with last year, the 2015 budget does contain some $2.8 million dollars in fixed assets and minor equipment purchases. This is a prudent process of systematically planning to replace and/or upgrade targeted equipment each year; eliminating the potential for mass replacements in a single year.

Due to the loss of the public safety tax revenues, the 2015 O & M Budget is projecting a surplus of $126,000 dollars. Once again, we have an aggressive Capital Improvement budget of over $7.6 million dollars (with over $3.5 million dollars in street and drainage projects); allowing us to continue to tackle many of the long-term infrastructure issues facing our city while still being fiscally responsible.

While we are happy with the strides we have made in budget management over the past four years, we are the first to realize there is always more that can be done to improve efficiencies and productivity. We continue to evaluate and liquidate non-performing assets and leverage those into either cash or assets of more operational value. This has allowed us to responsibly be able to renovate and occupy our new Police Administration Complex on Caraway Road; renovate the Earl Bell Community Center with a new gym floor and new HVAC; and renovate the Aquatic Center (former YMCA) with new offices and a conference room.

I remain optimistic for 2015 and as in previous years continue to pray for a complete economic recovery for our city, state, and nation. While we have enjoyed continued growth in population and opportunity, we are a part of a global economy that must ultimately function in harmony if we are to truly become the city that we are capable of becoming.

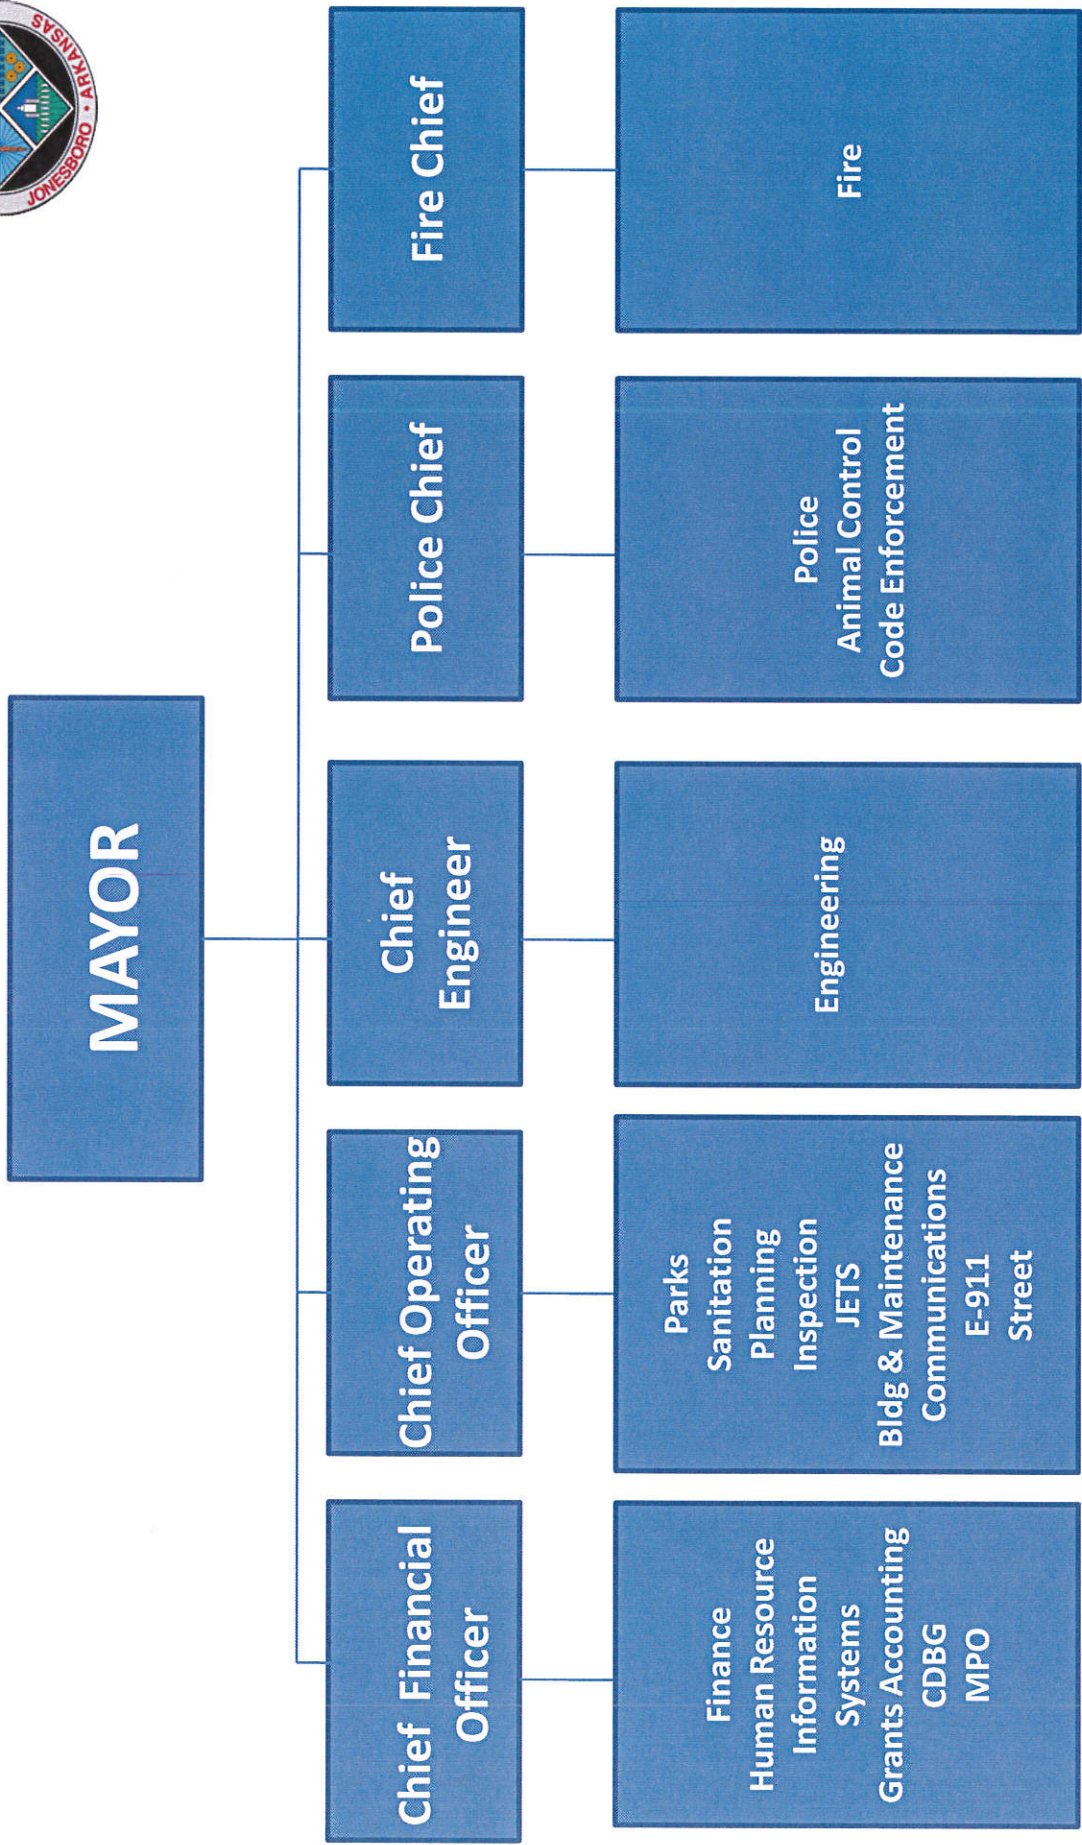

As always, I continue to be thankful for the confidence and trust you have placed in me and our entire administration. It remains the desire of our team to earn, honor and keep that trust.

I look forward to working with you closely in 2015 as we continue our journey together.

Sincerely,
