Minutes for the City Council meeting on June 20, 1994

APPEAL HEARING - 7:00 P.M. - An appeal hearing was held as requested by Mr. Harry LaTourette and his attorney, Skip Mooney Sr. Discussion was held regarding a lack of attendance by the Metropolitan Area Planning Commissioners. Mr. Mooney explained in order to have a majority vote there must be at least five votes. However, at most MAPC meetings commissioners are being called, in order to have a quorum, Mr. Mooney stated. He urged Mayor Hubert Brodell and Judge Bearden to fill all vacancies on the Commission so the business of the City could be done in a timely manner. Councilman Mays questioned Mr. Mooney on the property being located in the flood plan. Mr. Mooney answered by saying his client was willing to cooperate with the drainage project being done on Higginbottom Creek and agreed to go to a more restrictive zoning (Commercial Five). No opposition was voiced.
