Under new business, Mayor Brodell stated minor changes had been made to the original agreement for a combined Emergency 911 System between Craighead County and the City of Jonesboro. The changes made were as follows: 1) Replacing the 911 Director with the Chairman of the 911 Committee to serve on the Advisory Board; 2) A twelve month (rather than six month) notification period should either party decide to amend the agreement (otherwise the agreement is renewed annually); 3) In the event the agreement is terminated, an independent appraiser would appraise the assets, and reimbursement up to 25% would be provided to the County or 75% to the City of Jonesboro as the case may be. Councilman Perrin, Chairman of the E-911 Committee, explained Arkansas State Law requires agreements between any two separate governmental agencies be filed with the Secretary of State's Office. Councilman Young questioned the wording on Page 3 Paragraph 9, where it states, If Craighead County paid less than 25% of the actual operating costs of the center, and it will reimburse the City. If Craighead County paid more than the operating costs, it will reimburse the county. Councilman Young questioned if Craighead County would reimburse itself. It was explained that if Craighead County paid more than the operating costs it would be reimbursed by the City of Jonesboro. Councilman Tate moved, seconded by Councilman McCall for the adoption of the resolution. A voice vote was taken resulting in all members voting aye. Those members voting aye were: Kelton, Tate, McCall, Young, Crockett, Rorex, Rega, Copeland, Moore, Perrin, and Roddy. The resolution was assigned resolution number 1999:31.

Mayor Brodell stated Meadows Construction Company would be starting construction on Highway 141 and it would be four lanes not three lanes, with a sidewalk on the east side. He reported that thirty chairs were donated to the City of Jonesboro by the Haworth Company, and thanked them for their contribution. Mayor Brodell stated City Hall had been flooded with calls in opposition to the Jackyl Concert being held on Hastings parking lot. He explained City Attorney, Phillip Crego would be drafting an ordinance requiring a permit and fee prior to concerts being allowed to operate in the City of Jonesboro.

Councilman Moore inquired about the progress report on 1210 S. Madison (Ebbert property). Mayor Brodell stated there would be an update provided at the next council meeting.

Councilman Roddy announced a public hearing to discuss CDBG funding for a fourth year, July 22, 1999, at 7:00 p.m. at 900 W. Monroe.

With no further business, the meeting was adjourned.
