AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND THE CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION OF CRAIGHEAD COUNTY SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL AUTHORITY

BE IT ORDAINED by the City Council of the City of Jonesboro, Arkansas:

That Paragraph “Ninth” of the Certificate of Incorporation of Craighead County Solid Waste Disposal Authority is amended to read as follows:

“Ninth, the number of directors under this authority will be twelve (12) with the maximum number of directors never to be more than fifteen. Selection of directors will be made by the governing authority of the counties, municipalities, and towns. All towns under 5,000 population will be considered in county population for purposes of selection of directors. Municipalities with population of 5,000 or more will select their directors. The directors will be divided between the counties, municipalities, and towns according to population based upon the U.S. Census figures from 1980. Adjustment to number of directors allocated to each governing body will be changed within one year of each official U.S. Census. The directors will follow all other regulations governing conduct of the Authority as contain in Act 699 of 1979. The term of each director will be three (3) years. This initial term will be determined by lot. The towns under 5,000 population shall appoint two of the board of directors allocated to Craighead County. The mayors and city council members of the towns of Black Oak, Caraway, Lake City, and Monette shall appoint one (1) Board member. The mayors and city council members of the towns of Bay, Bono, Brookland, Cash, and Egypt shall appoint the other member.”

PASSED AND APPROVED this 6th day of October, 2003.
