Mr. Mickey Seeman and his attorney, Mr. Skip Mooney Sr. addressed the Council regarding Mr. Seeman's pool which was built on approximately five feet of the city's easement. Mr. Mooney requested the Council to approve a restricted covenant which would allow Mr. Seeman to use the pool until the city needed the easement. Councilman Bowers questioned if Mr. Seeman had tried to obtain a permit to build the pool. Mr. Mooney stated his client did not obtain a permit because he was unaware one was needed. It was explained by Mr. Mooney that due to miscommunications with the Planning and Inspection Office, Mr. Seeman was believed to be deliberately trying to defy the city's regulations. Mr. Brian Wadley, Director of Planning and Inspection responded by stating that Mr. Seeman had been denied on four different occasions a permit for his pool. Mr. Wadley explained that a permit is permission to begin a project, therefore Mr. Seeman knew he should not have installed the pool. Councilman Vance moved, seconded by Councilman Harpole to deny a restricted covenant as requested by Attorney Mooney (Sr.). A roll call vote was taken resulting in an eight (8) to three (3) vote in favor of the motion. Those Aldermen voting aye were: Province, Mullenix, Bowers, Perrin, Kelton, Vance, Harpole, and Hannah. Those Aldermen voting nay were: Wise, Evans and Mays.
