If the planning commission disapproves or denies a conditional use application, the reasons for such action shall be given to the applicant with 15 days from the date of the decision. The applicant may appeal such commission action, or any condition placed upon application approval, to the city council within 30 days of the commission's action. A property owner or leaseholder who owns or leases property within 200 feet of the subject property to which the conditional use applies, who is aggrieved by such decision of the planning commission shall have the right to appeal to the city council within 30 days of the commission's action. The appeal shall be in writing to the city clerk, and shall specifically state why the planning commission's findings and decision was arbitrary, capricious, and inappropriate. If denied, no application for such use or similar use shall be permitted involving any part of the same property for a period of six months.

The applicant shall:

1. Post notice on weatherproof signs provided by the city;

2. Place the signs on the property that is the subject of the application at least ten days before the public hearing; and
3. Ensure that the signs remain continuously posted until a final decision is made by the Metropolitan Area Planning Commission. At least one sign shall be posted by the applicant for each 150 feet of street frontage, up to a maximum of five signs. Signs shall be placed along each abutting street in a manner that makes them clearly visible to neighboring residents, and passersby. There shall be a minimum of one sign along each abutting street.

SECTION 2: All ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.
