Councilman Hargis provided each council member a written recommendation regarding transition to a hybrid form of City Manager form of government and asked council members to consider his recommendation.

Councilman Perrin reported there would be an important announcement by the Jonesboro Chamber of Commerce Thursday at noon at St. Bernard's Auditorium regarding the City of Jonesboro.

Under Public Comment, Mr. Bob Hester, State Director of the American Family Association of Arkansas, representing Mr. Steve Jacobson, spoke in opposition to the private club application by Piero's Downtown Restaurant and the Private Club Law. He stated the sale of alcoholic beverages was not conducive to economic growth for the downtown area because decent people would not come, and to issue a permit would set precedence for other eating establishments. Mr. Hester requested a show of hands by council members who supported and who were opposed to the permit. President Pro Temp Harold Perrin stated council rules require the matter to be referred to a committee. Councilman Young questioned City Attorney Crego regarding the law and the process for obtaining a liquor license. Attorney Crego stated the City Council is not part of the decision making process, that the permit had been denied by the Alcohol Beverage Control Board and an appeal has been scheduled for Wednesday, March 17, 2004. Councilman Young stated council chambers was not the place for council to voice their personal opinions on the matter, but recommended they be asked as individuals rather than a public body.

Mr. Peter Pierce, addressed comments made by Mr. Hester saying the sale of alcoholic beverages does enhance economic growth in that taxes pay the salaries of government officials. He stated alcohol sales would entice individuals to the downtown area.

Ms. Rea Traer, a disabled citizen, addressed the Jonesboro City Council in support of public transportation. She stated she had been treated rudely by the cab companies even though she pays $45.00 to $50.00 a month for cab services. She complained of poor response time and stated it hurts the disabled community because of their dependence on public transportation. Ms. Traer requested that city buses be allowed to operate.

Mr. Pat Osmond, with Arkansas Cab contradicted Mr. Traer's statements saying he has assisted Ms. Traer on four different occasions and has never been late. He explained his charges are more than other cab companies because he provides prompt service.

Dr. James Davis addressed the Council in opposition to the private club application by Piero's Downtown Restaurant and the Private Club Law. He stated there were two youth ministries located on Main and Union near the Piero's restaurant and it would be poor judgment to serve alcohol in this area. He requested each councilmember express themselves to the Alcohol Beverage Control Board because the Board takes their opinions into consideration when making the decision.

With no further business, Councilman Moore moved, seconded by Councilwoman Williams for adjournment. All voted aye.
